Ambulance Proposals Presented

Recommended changes in the town's ambulance service, not involving additional personnel or equipment have been received by the selectmen and turned over to the town manager for implementation.

The selectmen Tuesday night received the report of the ambulance study committee headed by Dean K. Webster. The committee was formed to study the ambulance service following an accident last summer when a North Reading ambulance had to be summoned. There also had been complaints about service to Boston or out of town hospitals.

The committee has recommended that the Shanahan ambulance service of Haverhill be called when the fire department ambulance is out of service due to such things as two-alarm fires which would take all firefighters out of ambulance service, or when the Andover vehicle is under repair.

The rate for the Shanahan service would be $30 for the first hour, $25 for the second hour and $20 for each hour thereafter.

Based on the 1970 experience, such cost is estimated to be $1,500 to $2,000 annually, the committee states.

The committee recommends that Andover continue to provide emergency service free to any Andover resident, transporting them to the nearest hospital.

If an exception is to be made, it is to be done by the town manager or his designated deputy, the report indicates.

The backup service, when the first line ambulance is not available should continue to be the station wagon cruiser of the police department. For this reason, the committee states, the station wagon cruiser should be kept clean at all times, even if it means using other town vehicles to pick up bicycles and the like.

Cemetery Workers Petition

Employees of Spring Grove Cemetery will be seeking civil service status at the annual town election March 1.

Petitions are being circulated this week in the hopes of obtaining in the vicinity of 1,000 signatures to place the referendum item on the ballot for the election.

Stephen Bamford, superintendent of Spring Grove cemetery, explained that the workers at the cemetery somehow were not included when the town voted civil service status for public works department employees several years ago.

The oversight now prohibits employees there from having the benefits of seniority, or bidding for town jobs when they become available.

By giving the civil service status to these employees, who have worked, three, eight and 24 years for the town respectively, more jobs become available in the various town departments, such as motor equipment operator, backhoe operator, etc.

The cemetery department is now the only division not having civil service status.

Bamford feels that the members of this department should be classified as others under the public works department, and has initiated the drive for signatures on nomination papers in order to allow voters to act on the matter in March.

Value Days On Weekend

Andover Value Days will be observed by most downtown stores Friday and Saturday, Jan. 15 and 16.

This is the annual mid-winter sale which offers hundreds of items at bargain prices. It is sponsored by the Retail Task Force of the Andover Chamber of Commerce as an after-Christmas event which provides shoppers with an excellent opportunity to obtain valuable merchandise at exceptional savings.

Stores generally will be open Friday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. and on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Window banners will designate participating stores.

Bids Called For School Addition

It appears now that the March town meeting will be able to act on the construction of the Doherty school addition with known costs.

James J. St. Germain, chairman of the building committee reports that the architect is finishing up the working drawings and bids will be called for in February.

Bids on the subcontract work are due to be filed by Feb. 18 and bids on the general contract must be filed by Feb. 25.

This will provide the committee with the cost of the building which will be presented to the March town meeting.

At its meeting Monday night, the building committee discussed the development of the playstead area with representatives of the recreation committee.

The playstead plans are not as yet complete, but the committee expects to meet again on this coming Monday to further review the matter.

It does, however, appear that the cost picture will be ready for town meeting.

The estimated cost has been set at $1,900,500.

Tax Rate Increase Could Hit $10 - $11

While preliminary estimates by town officials of Andover's 1971 tax rate increase has been set at about $7, Finance Committee Chairman Dr. Albert Greenberg has a different view.

Not at all optimistic that the rate can be held at $7, Dr. Greenberg said this week the jump this year could be as high as ten or eleven dollars.

His committee, the financial watchdogs of the town, have been meeting almost nightly examining the budgets of all town departments.

Dr. Greenberg notes that the $7 increase being talked about, includes only the items now before them, namely the budget as presented.

Much of the increase is practically built in, the chairman said.

"That $7 figure is valid, but at this point I certainly think it is low."

"We have such things as the teacher salary contract yet to come as well as a new contract with the police department. These figures will certainly have to make an impression on the final budget figures."

"Then we get to the water treatment plant issue. This is a $4,000,000 item. It will be costly if the town is unable to get federal assistance, but the need is there and it's something we are going to have to face," the chairman said.

As for the bond issue for the treatment plant, Dr. Greenberg feels the town may be able to save money over the years of construction.

Since the entire amount is not needed immediately, and the construction will be over a period of time, only the necessary amounts would be bonded from time to time in the hopes of obtaining funds when the bond market is most favorable.

The move is completely legal, if the town approves contracting for the bonded indebtedness.

The FinCom chairman said he thought there was a possibility that the proposed Doherty school addition might face tough sledding before the voters in March.

Parents of children in the central area of town will naturally favor the addition, but he sees a possibility of other residents of the community questioning its need.

Also, the chairman feels, there could be substantial opposition to a school department request for planning funds for an addition to the senior high school.

Other money articles can be expected to be challenged, he feels, noting that Andover like all communities are going to have to be in economy frame of mind at town meeting this year.

Also to be considered as he reflected on the tax increase is the diminishing amount of revenue received from the state.

This he feels is a very important factor.

Funds have been dropping over the years. The town received $150,000 a year ago from a special fund. This year that amount has been dropped with no apparent move by the legislature to restore the funds.

Reflecting seriously on the financial problems facing the town, Dr. Greenberg in summation, said, "the tax rate could easily go up $10 or $11, even if everything gets slaughtered at town meeting."

Area Groups Discuss Environmental Concern

Environmental concern is alive and well and living in Andover.

This was evident Tuesday night when the Andover Ecology Action Conference drew more than 160 area citizens, representing 25 organizations, to combine ideas and talents, their sources of expertise and their efforts in a united front of environmental concern.

A citizen's network on the environment is envisaged as a result of the conference - a network through which various concerned organizations and individuals can channel their efforts together toward particular issues, can communicate, and pool their informational and educational resources.

Establishment of a nerve center for the network, and possibility of a newsletter to conferees and other citizens indicating interest are under discussion now.

Among the organizations with representatives at the conference were the Conservation Commission, Andover Village Improvement Society, Andover Ecology Action, Chamber of Commerce, Fly Fisher's Club, all the garden clubs in Andover, Andover's Tree Department, the Sportsman's Club, the Housewives' Consumer Protection Committee, the Library, teachers from the school systems of Methuen and North Andover as well as Andover, and Ecology Action groups from these communities, the League of Women's Voters, the Parents' League, the Boy Scouts and Girls Scouts, while the Institute of Environmental Studies, and Boston Environmental sent representatives from Boston.

A number of other conferees with private or public concern for effective ecological directions for the town of Andover were present.

Under the leadership of PA biology teacher Thomas Cone (cited as "the foundation of all youth ecology action in Andover") and Jameson French, president of the Andover Ecology Action in the various secondary schools, the large crowd split into issue-oriented groups to discuss environmental problems, proposals, warrant articles, programs for the future. Official and/or private expertise was available and various

Snowmobiles Are Now Permitted

The Conservation Commission has reversed an earlier decision with regard to property it oversees and has allowed snowmobiling in three locations, with an additional area allowed by the selectmen.

The commission had previously prohibited use of such vehicles on conservation commission held land.

In a memorandum issued to the selectmen and town manager this past week, the commission indicated that the former Essex Sand and Gravel pit off Woburn street, the former Shlakis property off Brundrett Avenue in West Andover and the Davidson property on both sides of the railroad bed off High Plain road, would be open to snowmobile enthusiasts.

The letter to the town officials from the Conservation Commission follows:

After careful consideration and discussion, with due regard for the varied and sometimes conflicting desires for use of town-owned land by the townspeople, the Conservation Commission under the terms of its Rules and Regulations adopted last February has decided to sanction the use of snowmobiles for the 1971 season of the following parcels of open land under the management of the Conservation Commission:

1. Former Essex Sand and Gravel Pit off Woburn Street near Pumps Pond. This does not include Fosters Island, so-called.

2. Former Shlakis property, off Brundrett Avenue, near the Merrimack River. This does not sanction use of any AVIS land or trails.

3. Former Davidson property on both sides of the old railroad bed off High Plain Road near Haggetts Pond. This does not include the area adjacent to the pond nor the town nursery area under the control of the Water Department and the Tree Superintendent.

It is further suggested that the Selectmen specifically sanction the use of the town-owned former B and M Railroad right-of-way from High Plain Road across Haggetts Pond Road to Lowell Street.

In an effort to provide other suitable locations for this activity the Conservation Commission hereby requests that the Selectmen include in the Warrant an Article to authorize the Commission to negotiate for an easement for conservation purposes coinciding with the water line easement from Route 495 to River Road, another good trailway for skimbiling in the winter and horseback riding in the other seasons. This should not be costly and could be purchased from available funds.

These areas, together with the Harold Parker Forest, should provide opportunity for legitimate use of skimobiles at locations scattered over the town. The use by skimobiles of trails designed to cater to other users such as snowshoers, hikers, skiers, dog-walkers, etc., is to be discouraged, as is the use of areas or trails where the noise factor would be a neighborhood nuisance, such as Carmel Woods.

REAL ESTATE
CORNER

by Marjorie C. Kidd

"The New House"

For many people, newness is the criterion by which they buy a home just as many people prefer buying a new car.

As a rule, the new house will have the very latest in kitchen and bathroom equipment. Heating, plumbing and wiring facilities are up to date.

Design tends to be more family-oriented, more informal, than in older houses. The new home offers the buyer the opportunity to use only the type decorating and improving that he wishes. He can tailor outdoor facilities to his own tastes.

However, bear in mind that there are usually extra initial expenses compared to the move-in cost of an older home. For example, there may be a houseful of furniture to buy; or perhaps there is no lawn as yet.

Even so, the opportunity and challenge of newness often outweighs these disadvantages.

Whether a buyer or seller, you will have complete confidence in JAMES T. TREFREY REALTOR. Close Contests In Y League

By Frank Monette

Saturday's action in the Andover YMCA Basketball League found a number of close contests, as the Cougars and USC remained unbeaten for their 6th straight victory in their respective divisions. The top teams in all divisions remained with their winning ways, with the exception of the 2nd place Stanford team in the Junior division. In that game Notre Dame edged Stanford 19-18, causing a 3-way tie for 2nd place between Stanford, Notre Dame and Ohio State.

In the first Pee-Wee division game of the afternoon at the Y gym, the Cougars continued as the front-runner by blasting the Rhinos 17-4, as Marty Solomon swished 3 points through the net, Chris O'Hara hit for a 3 pointer, Capt. Kevin Muldoon, Dave Livingston and Jim Arnold popped in a 2 point bucket each, and Richard O'Hara, Andy Weil and Brad Linquest sparked the defense. The Rhinos received their scores from John Perowski and Tom Stevens who flipped in 2 points each, with aggressive play from Capt. George Donovan, Paul Bracken and Roger Romei.

In the second game the Bears slipped by the Lions 12-10 in overtime, causing a 3-way tie for 2nd place between the Rhinos, Bears and Lions. The big heroes for the Bears were Will Washburn who scored all 10 points in regulation time and Bob Conroy who scored the winning bucket in the overtime. Those also chipping in with many fine plays for the Bears were Mike Barrett, Kevin Daly, Eugene Bernhard, and Martin Evans. Stars for the Lions were Andy Socha who scooped in 4 points, which included the tying bucket in the final quarter to send the game into overtime, Andy Sambuco, Jack Hadam and Dave Callaghan who each popped in 2 markers.

In games played at the Voke-Tech. gym in the Pee-Wee division, the Broncos skimmed by a tough Rams team 9-6. The Broncos were led by Kevin Fogarty, who canned 6 points, John McEwen who stuffed 3 points, and fine all-around play by Dave Smith, Mark Juarez, Tim Cronin, Vin Nikonchuk and Joel Smith. For the Rams Brian Bronson led the charge with 3 points, Willy Nikonchuk a 2 pointer and Tom Ryden a 1 point charity toss, with assists from Capt. Chris Martha, Gary Cairnes, Barnaby Anderson and Mike King.

In the final Pee-Wee game of the day, the Tigers moved back into sole possession of first place by panting their way past the Pintos 14-10. The Tigers took a 6-0 halftime lead and had a 10-2 advantage going into the final quarter, but the Pintos would not play dead as Dave Farrell bombed in 6 points and Frank Pelletier 2 points to outscore the Tigers 8-4 in the final session but just fell short as Geoffrey Bragdon got tow clutch hoops for the Tigers. Leading the big win for the Tigers were Capt. Geoffrey Bragdon who popped in 8 points, Bob Zwicker who chucked in 6 points and fine floor play by Mark Pawlik and Rick Heislein. The Pintos were led by Capt. Dave Farrell's 8 points, Frank Pelletier's 2 point bucket and fine steals from Eddy Collins, Ted Paris, Chuck Fleming, Dave Heislein and Peter Chiklis.

In the Junior division 3rd place Notre Dame upset 2nd place Stanford 19-18, on the clutch 6 points of Jay Martha in the final quarter and a 1 point free-throw by Gerry Cox. Notre Dame's Jay Martha had the game high of 12 points, as teammates Gerry Cox dropped in 5 points and Bill Emmert hit for 2 points, and Capt. Daryl Gustafson, Mike Henderson, Bob Muldoon, Matt Billings and Arthur Adler shared in the rebounding honors. Stanford who blew a first quarter 6-0 lead and fell behind 10-8 at the half, fought back for a 14-12 advantage entering the final session, but then were outscored 7-4 in the final quarter, as Capt. Tom Duffy scored 11 points from way-down-town, Mitch Rousseau blitzed 5 points over the rim, Tom Coffey zonked in a 2 pointer and Dwight Jacobson, John Donovan, Dan Ackroyd, Peter Erill and Brian McGann held the defense together.

St. Bonaventure managed to squeak by an upset-minded Dartmouth team 20-17, as the Bonny's received a well-balanced scoring attack led by David Bronson who threw in 6 points, Mark Davey 4 markers, and 2-point buckets by Capt. Brian Twomey, Jim Morin, Dave Rosenberg, Omar Abboud and Dave Dauber. Good defense was added by Tim Servello, Hiram Samel and Jeff Smith. For Dartmouth, Capt. George Bragdon zinged in 8 points, Mark Diforio, 6 markers, Jim Tweedie a 2-pointer, Mike Witt 1 point, and fine play from Randy Hayman, Tom Black, Mike Wilson and Bill Schlott.

Ohio State smashed Jacksonville 44-18, as Capt. Richard Rosetti zoomed in 20 points, Dan Billings 7 points, Mark Conlon, Ray Rau and Matt Mirisola popped in 4 points apiece Kevin Kenney and Chris Neaves stuffed in 2 pointers, Paul Barry a 1 point free-throw and sharp play from Mark McDermott. Jacksonville was led by Paul Rosetti's 6 markers, Capt. Scott Hammar and Brian White 4 points each, Rick Collins and J. Would you be surprised to learn that a Chinese woman could be an excellent cataloger of books written in English? If so, you have a surprise coming because that's another interesting fact about Memorial Hall Library. Mrs. Tseng-wen Shen (Winnie, to all of us on the staff) has been cataloger and head of Technical Services for two years at MHL. In this capacity she handles approximately 7300 items annually, all the adult books, all the children's books, and all the microfilm. The content and supervision of the typing of each catalog card is her responsibility, an overwhelming job when one realizes that each book has at least two cards in the catalog (author and title) and that most non-fiction books have five to eight cards, each, as required to cover the subject areas involved. To do such a job with ease, a cataloger must have accuracy and wide range of knowledge in many areas. Winnie is such a person, and it is to her credit that so many new users of the library have been added in the last two years. They obviously find adequate access to the collection through the card catalog, the only way a library can be useful and valuable.

The Shens came to the United States in September, 1964 from Taiwan, though originally they were from Peiping, China. Winnie's husband is Yuan-Shou Shen, a research metallurgist employed by P. R. Mallory Burlington, laboratory. The couple lived in Oregon first where Winnie received her MLS from the School of Librarianship at the University of Oregon in 1967. When Mr. Shen accepted his position in Burlington, the family moved to Reading, where they live at present. There are two boys, Colin Shen, a senior at the University of Massachusetts and Dwight Shen, a junior at Reading High School.

It goes without saying that Winnie would be by nature a conscientious and diligent worker. Yet this is not the whole story, because she possesses a delightful nature which sometimes bubbles over into merriment, especially when she tries to hold back her laughter. Everyone loves to have her around and many of us have tried to learn a few words of Chinese. She claims she has no time for any hobbies but it is clear much of her time is spent entertaining friends from her homeland who come to the Shens looking for some genuine Chinese dishes.

Coming Events

The next meeting of the Great Books Discussion Group will be Jan. 26 at 7:30 in the Print Room at Memorial Hall Library. The book under discussion will be Slaughterhouse-Five by K. Vonnegut, Jr.

The film program for the Senior Citizens will be held at the Baptist Church on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 21 at 2 p.m. Everyone is welcome.

Question

Last week's question was "What was the name of Don Quixote's horse?" The answer of course is Rosinante, as found by the reference librarian in short order in Magill's Master Plots, 1st series. This week the question is in the field of crafts from earlier times: Can you give me any information on Steven's graphs?

With a 23 to 14 handicap at half time, MacPherson caught fire to collect 15 of his 20 points during the third and fourth quarters. Final score of this match was a close 42 to 44. Music To
Our Ears

By Edward P. Grigoli

There were a few technical differences between the early New Orleans Dixieland style and the Chicago style that developed in the 1920's. The banjo which had been used was replaced by the guitar. Introductions and endings became current. The tenor saxophone was added to the instrumentation and the relaxed playing style was sacrificed for intensity and drive.

About this time Jazz started to move in both the domestic and international level. Around 1919 Jazz went to Europe as the original Dixieland Band became the sensation of London Society.

During the early years, both the negro and the white musicians drew their material from the music of the old brass bands and from the folk blues.

There was little difference in the harmonic and melodic structure between negro and white Jazz. However, a subtle distinction in the interpretation was unmistakable to any knowledgeable listener.

It was said that early Jazz musicians were musically illiterate, and not until the early 1920's did written arrangements by both negro and white bands produce men who had studied music and became capable readers.

Up until then most of the Jazz performances were played by improvising on set harmonic patterns and original interpretations of familiar tunes.

William F. King

King To Seek Return To Board

School committeeman William F. King, 71 Harold Parker Road, an associate dean of Northeastern University who this fall was named acting dean of Northeastern's Lincoln College, has announced he will seek a second term on the Andover school committee.

Since coming to Andover in 1961, King has been an officer of the South School PTA, and he has been a member of the school committee for the past three years.

In his first term, King made recommendations to achieve a smoother running internal budgeting and accounting procedures. He teamed with now-retired committeeman William A. Doherty to make a survey of school sites and building needs, and has served as liaison with the building committee of the West School Addition.

King feels that his first-term concerns for promoting better communication between the schools and the town, for better understanding of school issues, and for providing teachers with opportunities for professional improvement within the system are now being met under the leadership of Superintendent Dr. Kenneth R. Seifert. Committeeman King points out that teachers are not only improving their techniques and updating their training in the new inservice programs but, as an extra dividend, they are beginning to create programs themselves for the Andover schools.

King is also concerned with providing equal educational opportunity to all Andover children to develop their own talents and capabilities to the fullest, and he is presently concerned with providing enough basic educational spaces to do this, through economical school construction.

An alumnus of Northeastern, where he received his bachelor's and master's degrees, Dean King had several years of industrial experience with Honeywell, Inc., and AVCO, before joining the university in 1960 as assistant professor of electrical engineering, executive officer and acting chairman of that department, and for several months was acting dean of the College of Engineering.

In 1968 he was one of three men promoted to the new post of associate dean of the faculty of Northeastern. This past September he was named acting dean of Lincoln College, Northeastern's expanding technical school.

As an elected member of the faculty senate, Dean King has participated in many activities involving academic and fiscal policies.

He is married to the former Concetta LaTorre, and the family has six children, five of them in Andover public schools. Mrs. King is town chairman for the Campfire Girls, and has been active in the Bancroft PTA, March of Dimes and Heart Fund campaigns.

Historic Win Streak Halted

The end of the three-year, 29-game win streak of defending champion West Parish A, and the emergence of St. Robert's A as the only team still undefeated, highlighted this week's exciting Junior Division action in the Andover Church Basketball League.

The 29 straight victories are believed to be the longest win streak in the league's 24-year history.

In the Intermediate Division, St. Augustine 2 and defending champ West Parish 2 posted victories to continue as unbeaten co-leaders.

Junior Division - In what has to rate as one of the most exciting Junior contests in some time, a fired-up St. Robert's B quintet upset West A by the narrowest of margins - 11-10.

The loss snapped West A's win streak at 29 games, and was only the second defeat, for the team in its last 49 games over a four-year span (47-2). The victory boosted St. Robert's B into second place with a 4-1 record, while West A slipped into a third-place tie at 3-1. The last time West A tasted defeat was in a 16-5 loss to St. Augustine B in 1968.

The rivals, playing at the Doherty School gym in a last-minute shift, were tied 2-2 after the first quarter. Buckets by Paul Rosetti of West A and Mitch Rousseau of St. Robert's B produced the deadlock.

The winners took a 4-2 edge at the half on a basket by Billy McGuire. West A rallied to tie the game 7-7 after three quarters. Jeff Smith stuffed 4 points and Paul Rosetti swished a free throw for West A, while Mitch Rousseau countered with 3 points for St. Robert's.

A key lay-up by Kris Larson, and single free throws by Billy McGuire and Rousseau gave St. Robert's an 11-7 lead late in the final stanza. But West A rallied fiercely on a free throw by John Crush and a long shot by Jeff Smith. This cut the gap to 11-10, but time ran out seconds later. Rousseau, who fired in one 25-footer at a key time, finished with 6 points. McGuire added 3 points and Larson hooped 2 markers. Jay Caputo and Scotty Praetz also sparked St. Robert's.

For West A, still very much in the title race, Jeff Smith canned 6 points, Co-Capt. Rosetti had 3 points and John Crush dipper-dunked 1 point.

Dave Alexander, Co-Capt. Mark Conlon and Frank Comparato also led an aggressive tiger-like, West A defense.

A big third quarter spurt was enough to carry St. Robert's A to a 9-3 triumph over West Parish B in a battle of previously-unbeaten clubs. The win lifted St. Robert's A to 5-0, while West B is now 3-1.

The contest was tied 2-2 at the half, but the victors pumped in five key points in the third period to insure the triumph.

Brent Goldstein, whose outside popping led the way, flipped in 4 points to pace St. Robert's A. Larry Weitz and Scotty Goldstein contributed 2 points each, and big Bobby Murray canned a free throw.

Excellent floor games by Tommy Saunders, Owen Keegan and Todd Orlando also spearheaded the division leaders.

Dave Bradner tossed in 2 points and Glen Brody banked in a charity throw for West Parish B. Andy Campbell, Joel Smith, John McEwen and Pete Newton headed a tenacious West B defense that contained St. Robert's A as well as any club has thus far.

St. Augustine P, again guided by tricky guards Glenn Lefebvre and Dave Farrell, upped its record to 3-2 by edging brother-club St. Augustine C, 10-6.

Farrell parted the strings for 6 points, and Lefebvre found the range for 4 more markers to conclude the winners' scoring. John Walsh, Steve Moriarty, Joe Cahill and Bobby Oelwang had several steals for the victors.

Hustling Charlie Wiseman made it a close game by gunning in 6 points for St. Augustine A, now 1-4. Chipping in with all-around fine efforts were Mark Bedell, Larry Lamagna, John Greco and Danny Caselden.

St. Augustine C also vaulted over the 500 mark (3-2) by racing past winless Free, 17-4.

Dan Mulligan, whose 6 points in the opening quarter were all that were needed, paced St. Augustine C with a final total of 8 points. Four other players hit the scoring column. Timmy Dubois hooked in 4 points, Eddie Reming and Steve Dubois swished 2 points apiece, and Frank Campbell had a third period free throw.

Second-quarter buckets by John Franz and Paul Hutchins were the lone tallies for Free. Other whirlwinds in a losing cause included Dave Stanwood, Dave Wilson, Eric Frederickson and Jonathan VanderZee.

The final Junior match saw South Church score six points in the last quarter to defeat Christ Church, 6-2.

The game was tied 0-0 through the first three periods, but then single baskets by Scott Cochrane, and big men Mark Howe and Alan Gould carried South to the victory.

Lefty Will Washburn, mini-man John Sagaser and Doug Taylor held the winning defense together with some fine steals and rebounds. Dave Joy canned a fourth quarter bucket to complete the losers' scoring. Other Christ Church standouts were Scott Wilton, John Cunliffe, Greg Stupack and Will Joy.

Intermediate Division - Defending champ West Parish 2, upped its 1970-71 mark to 3-0 by toppling an under-manned St. Augustine 1 squad, 32-8.

Seven players figured in the well-balanced West 2 scoring attack. Bob MacMackin was game-high with 11 points. Dave Vivian and Mark Hewett pumped in 6 points each, Bob Scribner stuffed 3 points and Steve Brody, Bill Martin and Greg Brown rifled in 2 points apiece.

Tommy Devlin, Brian White and Richard Chikon contributed some fine outside defense for West 2.

St. Augustine 1, missing several key men, was led by John Zemis' 3 points. Big John Sullivan and Kurt Reming dropped in 2 points each, and Mark Dilorio swished a charity toss. Ed Caselden and Paul Rindone also played well in a losing cause.

St. Augustine 2 remained as the third undefeated loop club by clubbing previously-undefeated South, 38-14. South had scored 108 points in its first two starts.

The winners ran 12 different players in-and-out of the line-up, and nine of them hit the scoring column.

Leading the charge was Bart Farrell who poured in 11 points. Keith Verrette muscled his way underneath for 9 points. Smooth-shooting lefty guard Glenn Verrette and gunner Bob Messersmith fired in 4 points apiece.

Also popping in two points each for St. Augustine 2 were Mark Moriarty, Timmy Meyers, Bob Peterson, Dave Hajj and Joe L'Italien. Playing well in limited action were Barry Bronson and Brian Twomey.

Division scoring leader Paul Hoffman again hit double figures and led South with 10 points. Dana Gould banked in 3 points, and Bill Hocknell whipped in a single free throw. Mark Davis, John Kilgo and Steve Porter also sparked for the losers.

Pat Fay scooped in 12 points and Garrett Lynch 10 to guide Christ Church to a 34-16 conquest of Free. Boulanger added 6 points, Fleisher 4 markers and Bruce Wilton 2 points for the victors. Billy Gouger was a defensive tiger.

The well-balanced Free charge saw Dirk Vondell stuff 5 points, Mark Hamilton and Steve Bradford 4 apiece and Mark Hammar had 3 points. Jack Manning and Scott Hammar bulwarked the losing defense.

The final Intermediate encounter saw St. Robert's 1 upend brother-club St. Robert's 2 by a 22-10 count.

Appointed President Of Institute

Jerome Tagg

The board of directors of Andover Institute of Business has announced the appointment of Jerome Tagg as president and chief executive officer of the educational firm. Mr. Tagg, former executive vice president at Andover, has assumed his duties at the AIB home office at 9 Essex St.

President Tagg brings many years of educational and business experience to Andover Institute. He has functioned primarily as an educator in the business world.

Mr. Tagg originally came to Andover Institute from Honeywell, Inc. At Honeywell he most recently served as national manager of consulting services. Mr. Tagg also was Honeywell's director of marketing education in Europe where he directed training for executives, systems analysts and programmers in Information Sciences. He was previously manager of Marketing education for Honeywell's electronic data processing division in the United States.

President Tagg taught at the University of Houston where he earned his M.S. in Industrial Engineering. He holds a B.S. in Commercial Engineering from the University of Denver.

Mr. Tagg has been responsible for the development of many educational systems. He was principal author of "BISAD" (Business Information Systems Analysis and Design) which is reputed to be the finest in the country.

President Tagg stated: "Education throughout the country is reaching a crisis point. The traditional 4 years liberal arts program simply cannot provide the specially-trained personnel needed by industry in the seventies. What is needed now is an innovative approach to education that will involve the student in real situations and give him a solid base of practical knowledge. Learning must extend beyond the text book and into reality. I feel that the two year business school, such as Andover Institute, meets this challenge of the seventies. We have eliminated the irrelevant frills from post secondary education. We train a knowledge worker, a person whose practical education equips him for positions as they actually exist in industry. One of our chief educational goals is to prepare young men and women for high-demand career areas, such as data processing, the secretarial fields, accounting business administration, and electronics. These positions are careers not jobs that disappear with a fluctuating economy."

Mr. Tagg resides in Andover, with his wife Gerry and his two children, Dee and Randy.

If past trends continue, nearly half of the national population will be living in the suburban parts of our metropolitan areas in 1985; only one-fourth will be living in central cities, according to Dr. George H. Brown, Director of the Bureau of the Census.

Editorial Comment

Sorry

In our editorial columns last week we commented on the Conservation Commission refusing permission to use its lands for snowmobiles.

The decision has since been amended and some of the acreage can now be used for the winter recreation vehicles.

But a large part of the population seemed to misinterpret our thoughts on the matter, feeling we were in complete support of snowmobiles.

Frankly, our thoughts were not in regard to snowmobiles, but more on restriction of use of public land.

Our thoughts were that the Conservation Commission has been provided with an abundance of public funds to obtain lands for preservation and open space.

To then deny the public access or use of the lands, even regulated as to safety standards, seemed to us to be wrong, for the taxpayers had provided the funds.

That was the point - public use of public property.

As for skimobiles, we have no feeling, one way or another.

To the enthusiasts, may they enjoy themselves cavorting over the snow dressed landscape where permitted.

To the conservationists, who deplore the skimobiles' alleged noise and air pollution factors, we wish them well with their open spaces.

But let's allow the taxpayers to use their land obtained at tremendous cost and which, by the way, is dropped from the tax roles.

Tax Rate

News comes in this week's TOWNSMAN, which we are sure is far from pleasant.

It deals with the 1971 tax rate.

Finance Committee Chairman Dr. Albert Greenberg foresees a possible jump of $10 to $11, a greater amount than previously felt.

His committee is ardently examining budget requests at the moment in the hopes of bringing down the forecasted increase.

The reasoning of the FinCom chairman seems reasonable.

The budget of both the town and the school departments reflect an almost automatic $7 increase.

Special articles to be acted upon in the warrant are not as yet complete, thus the total amount will not be known until Friday.

But facing the town as we know at present are capital projects such as the Doherty school addition, and the water treatment plant, both costing in the millions.

The FinCom chairman feels that his group will certainly be looking at all expenditure items with an economical eye, but in some cases its hands are tied, as necessities must be faced.

As town meeting approaches, one might assume that the taxpayers will be developing a strictly belt tightening attitude - something not particularly predominant in the past.

Spiraling municipal costs, coupled with diminishing state and federal funds to towns and cities dictates such an attitude.

Water Rates

The selectmen this week, by a majority vote, accepted a report which recommended an increase in the town's water rates.

As we mentioned previously, no one particularly looks forward to increased costs, but this report, which cost the town $9,000 for consultants, seems most logical.

It puts the town in the business of selling water.

Most of all, it puts the water department on an almost self sustaining basis, thus relieving the taxpayers in that regard.

Development of the water department, as dictated by growth, is to be an expensive proposition in view of the construction of a treatment plant.

It could be paid directly by taxes, along with other water department bond issues through taxes.

With the new rate system in effect, those using the facilities of the water department will be paying their fair share for the needed improvements and operation of the department.

Apathy

As the deadline nears for the filing of nomination papers for the annual town election, we note with alarm an apparent lack of interest on the part of candidates.

This is a bit disheartening.

There should be an abundant public interest in municipal office.

We live in times of great interest in municipal affairs, yet, here in Andover, it would appear there is a great disinterest as manifested by the lack of political candidates.

There is still sufficient time to correct this apathy and we hope that there will be more interest shown in the days ahead.

Candidates have until 5 p.m., Monday, Jan. 25 to file nomination papers. A total of 94 qualified signatures are required to have the name placed on the ballot.

What Our Readers Say-

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN

I disagree with your editorial "Conservation?" in the January 7, 1971 "Townsmen" objecting to the action of the Conservation Commission barring snowmobiles from land under their control. Recent articles in the Christian Science Monitor ("Snowmobiles spin -- into hot water", Jan. 4, p.1, and "Conventional outdoorsmen shudder at herds of snowmobiles", Jan. 7, p.5) discuss the pros and cons, the joys, uses, and dangers of these vehicles in some detail, and I recommend their perusal. Considerable doubt is raised about the "harmlessness" of these machines from conservation as well as other viewpoints.

The racket which they make is even worse than that of the motorcycles which scream over our roads and fields and reservations, and shatter the pleasant quiet of many users of our conservation and recreational lands, users who are also taxpayers and I am sure outnumber the ones with both the snowmobile bug and the upwards of $750 to buy one.

The "hundreds of acres" which you said were controlled by the Commission (275 acres, according to the 1969 Town Report, or only 1.35 percent of the total area of Andover) should be dedicated to the enjoyable use of the greatest possible number of our citizens. I certainly concur in the action of the Commission, and strongly disagree with your editorial statement that "the conservation lands lend themselves most appropriately to such use." What really seems ludicrous would be not to protect the citizenry from snowmobiles!

Wilson R. Neisser
58 Prospect Road

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN

In response to your criticism of the Conservation Commission's ban on snowmobiles, I wish to point out that a principle objective of setting land aside is to provide the people of the Town a brief escape from this noisy, mechanized world we have created. How pleasant it is to crunch through the snow in the quiet wood until a giant-sized mobile "chainsaw" roars on by.

D. C. Anderson

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN

To arrive at a fair apportionment of water rates as between residential and industrial customers, Andover Town Meeting ought to give more consideration to two items: The apportionment method used by electric utilities based upon peak demand as well as daily use and 2) that whereas Andover is obligated to supply water to all this obligation, in the

An Andover resident was presented with a distinctive honor this week.

David Kapelson of Longwood Drive, treasurer of Kap's, Inc., of Lawrence, was presented Retailer of the Year award by the New England Men's and Boys' Retail Apparel Association.

The award is particularly distinctive since there are 11,000 potential candidates throughout the six state area.

The award recipient is chosen by some 600 ballots cast by salesmen who visit the clients throughout New England.

We have, as many motorists have, faced the hazards of dogs chasing cars.

But over the years, we have faced some unusual chases, not the least of which occurred last Sunday on Highland Road.

While traversing the street, a rabbit jumped out of the woods, and we would imagine more from fright than anything else, ran right beside the car for some distance, before finally jumping back into the woods.

A few years ago, a goose on Great Pond Road used to get great pleasure in slowing down cars and actually pecking at the tires.

So dogs aren't the only animal hazard to drivers.

Glancing through the TOWNSMAN of 50 years ago this week, we noticed a local retail outlet, since gone out of business, advertising a special on Western Electric washing machines.

The machines were on special at ten percent off.

Western Electric is particularly known at present for its production of communication equipment and is one of the largest employers in the Merrimack Valley area.

Several years ago, however, when the firm was in its beginnings, it did manufacture such items as washing machines and appliances, not, of course, in its North Andover plant.

Residents should be aware that depositing snow in the streets is prohibited, and subject to court action if apprehended.

Noticed early this week were a couple of residents doing some snow removal work around their homes with a snow blower.

The machine was tossing the heavily caked snow onto the roadway with the operator almost oblivious to passing cars.

The Jerry Lewis Labor Day telethon for Muscular Dystrophy set a record when $5,093,385 was pledged.

Often times the pledged amount falls short of its goal.

But reports from officials indicate that 96.4 percent of the money promised has already been banked.

Seven bulletins revised by the U. S. Department of Agriculture are now available to area residents free on request to the Extension Service, Essex Agriculture and Technical Institute, Hathorne, Mass., 01937.

OLDE ANDOVER VILLAGE

The Andover High basketball team rolled to its fifth victory in six starts, while the hockey club split a pair of games, in AHS sports' action last week.

The Golden Warrior hoop quintet had little trouble with winless Dracut, posting a lopsided 70-37 victory over the Middies of Dracut.

The pucksters were on the short end of a 3-2 score against Chelmsford in Merrimack Valley Schoolboy Hockey League action recently at the Merrimack Valley Forum. However, they bounced back to whip Tewksbury 5-2 in a game that won't count in the league standings because it was "no seniors" day. All seniors were taking College Board exams, which relegated the action to a "scrimmage contest."

Coach Wil Hixon's basketball club is currently in a three-way dogfight with Little Three rivals Methuen and North Andover for the leadership of the Merrimack Valley Conference. All three teams sported 3-0 league marks prior to this Tuesday.

The hockeyists are still mired in seventh place with a 1-4-0 ledger, but they have been improving with each contest.

A big basketball match was on tap last Tuesday, after TOWNSMAN presstime, as Andover faced undefeated Methuen (6-0). The hockey team, meanwhile, will return to action this Saturday afternoon (12:40 p.m.) at the Billerica Forum against Billerica (1-3-0).

Basketball -- Coach Hixon had another opportunity to clear his bench, as 13 players saw action and 12 hit the scoring column during the Dracut romp.

Lefty Chris Post of the Golden Warriors took game scoring honors, and led three AHS players into twin digits, with 13 points. Sophomore center Scott White stuffed 11 points, and consistent Joe Crush flipped in 10 markers.

Moving down the line, Karl Nilson hooped nine points, Co-Capt. Steve Lanier, Steve Alexander and Dana Carmichael added six points apiece, Art Nichols had three points, Kevin Connors and Ken Nilson two each, Co-Capt. Dave Hixon and Concepcion one free throw apiece.

By Rick Harrison

This marked the first action for Hixon, a mainstay on last year's club which swept to the Eastern Mass. Class C championship. He has been sidelined with a severe charleyhorse sustained during football season.

Dracut hung tough for one quarter, as Andover led only 13-7 after the first eight minutes. But the once-beaten Golden Warriors built up a 32-16 halftime bulge, and then out-scored the winless Middies 38-21 over the second half.

White did all of his scoring in the first and third stanzas, while Post picked up six of his points in the final quarter.

In the JV preliminary, Coach Bill Vickers' Andover yearlings lifted their record to 4-0 with a 64-25 rout of the Dracut undergrads. Carmel Cooper canned 20 points for the winners, and Jon Bowen put on a tremendous fourth quarter scoring show with 18 points in just six minutes.

Hockey -- Junior center Jim Palmer rifled in his second goal of the game with less than four minutes to play, propelling Chelmsford to its exciting 3-2 hockey triumph over Andover.

After a scoreless first period, the teams traded second stanza goals. Chelmsford took a 2-1 lead early in the third canto, only to have Andover battle back to tie the score 2-2 a minute later. This set the stage for Palmer's heroics.

The game got off to an auspicious start, as Coach Bruce Marshall's Lions scored a goal just 16 seconds of play. However, the red-lighter by Mark Ennis was disallowed because he had kicked the puck into the net.

The first period then settled down to an exchange of missed opportunities, as a number of Chelmsford and Andover players shot wide of the net on break-aways and close-in volleys.

Palmer broke the ice at 0:35 of the middle period, flipping a 15-foot rebound of a Jim Kerrigan shot past kneeling Andover goalie Al Chapman.

The Golden Warriors' Cal Smith retaliated at 2:05, jamming home a 12-foot rebound of a shot by sophomore center Scott Seero.

Chelmsford defenseman Kim Scoggins made it 2-1 at 2:04 of the final canto, flipping a five-foot backhand over Chapman's left shoulder. Andover sophomore Bob Farnum re-tied the score 2-2 at the 3:17 mark, tipping in a 45-foot powerplay slapshot by sophomore defenseman Mike Mur-name.

Enter Mr. Palmer, who took advantage of the only Andover penalty of the day to tip-in a long slapshot by defenseman Bob Moorehouse for the victory.

The Golden Warriors ended with a 24-19 shooting edge. Chapman finished with 17 saves, while Lions' goalie Bob Knowles kicked aside 21 shots.

In Saturday's scrimmage contest, Andover grabbed a 2-0 advantage after the first period and never relinquished the lead.

Scott Seero led the way with a pair of lamplighters, while Bob Farnum netted the game-winning tally. Other goals were garnered by Mike Murnane and Pete Retelle.

Murnane started the scoring at 5:18 of the opening period, snapping a 20-foot wrist shot into the net on a powerplay. Seero added his first marker at 11:37, taking a Murnane feed and gunning home a 30-foot slapper.

Coach John Corbett's Redmen closed the gap to 2-1 at 0:21 of the second session, when freshman Colin Ahern potted a five-foot wrist shot. Farnum made it 3-1 at 3:58, slipping in a 15-foot backhand on another powerplay.

The Redmen came back again at 6:17, closing to within 3-2 on a 10-foot backhand by rushing defenseman Mark Bulloch. Again it was a powerplay.

The Golden Warriors insured victory with a brace of third period goals. Pete Retelle made it 4-2 at 8:16, stealing the puck and whistling a 25-foot slapshot into the lower left corner of the Tewksbury cage.

Seero mopped up at 9:58, lifting a 10-foot rebound over the sprawling Redman goalie. Assistants went to Cal Smith and Farnum.

Tewksbury had a 21-16 shooting edge in the tilt. Dean Marshall handled the first two-and-half periods in net for Andover, while Tom Barenboim came on to finish up in the later stages.

Ecologists In Visit To Cape

Members of the Andover High School Ecology Club and a handful of Marine Biology students participated in a week-long environmental study of the Cape Cod National Seashore, Jan. 4 through 8. This program was provided by the National Park Service through NEED (National Environmental Education Development).

Chaperones of the trip were Phil Nelson and Jerry Lake, two teachers of AHS, Reverend Vought, Richard Scully, Charles Needham and Mary Ellen Sullivan.

The participants in the program were as follows: Carol Maynard, Dawn Marshall, Lauri Marshall, Peggy Murphy, Beth Nielson, Jean Farrington, Larry Campbell, Mark Gulezian, Carol Christopher, Craig Reed, Donna Childs, Shirley Harrison, Richard Haag, Marc Blumberg, Mary Staid, Wendy Wood, Chris Cotton, Steve Olney, James Bradford, Jean Lenk, Linda Shea, Sue Otto, Kay Corry, Mary Jane Corry, Natalie Bennet, Glenn Gilday, John Murray, Sue Tasillo, Linda Fuller, Mary Ann Conlon, Peter Symosek, and Andrew Malis.

The program is essentially an environmental workshop. It was designed for appreciation of nature in relation to man's understanding and relationship to nature. Studied were the geological formation of natural areas and the arrangement and balance of natural areas, and investigation of the positive and negative effects of man. Hopes were that the group would come back with a greater interest in environment and an appreciation and concern of ecological balances. Another purpose of the trip was to develop and socialize personal responsibility, organization, cooperation and interaction. Andover High School now has the distinction of being the first high school group to participate in the program.

The AHS group was more of a pilot group to set examples for future groups.

After arriving at the Coast Guard Station where the group stayed, there was a nature hike to the Visitor Center for a review and explanation of the area and purpose. Other activities during the week were hikes or trips to Skiff Hill, Fort Hill, Marconi Site, Nauset Marsh, Provincetown and Provincetown Islands, and a boardwalk through Cedar Swamp.

Among observations on these trips were historic and Indian rocks, a spring which the Pilgrims drank from, giant sand dunes, white and red cedar trees in colonies according to their environment, many marineland specimens, and various fish at the Sea-Aquarium. Members of the photography club on the trip are putting together a movie and slide presentation which will be made available to schools and interested groups. The journal committee formed for the trip are writing up a booklet for reference and information for future groups.

The Ecology Club hopes to develop a follow up program for weekends this spring. It will involve a mixture of experienced students with new students in a concentrated two day environmental workshop.

Nelson Headmaster At Pike

The Trustees of The Pike School announce the appointment of Mr. Raymond A. Nelson as Headmaster effective July 1, 1971.

Mr. Nelson comes to The Pike School from Ulster Academy in Kingston, New York, where he has been the Headmaster since 1967, and prior to that he was a member of the faculty of St. Bernards School in Gladstone, New Jersey.

He received his early education at Poly Prep Country Day School in New York City. He graduated Phi Beta Kappa with an AE degree from Williams College in 1954 and earned a STB degree from Harvard University Divinity School. Further studies included those at the Episcopal Theological School and Drew University.

Mr. Nelson is married to the former Rosemary King and they have three children, Raymond A., Jr., 14, Kristin Davy, 12, and Christopher R., 11.

School authorities have arranged for parents and other interested members of the public to meet Mr. Nelson on the evening of Feb. 16, at 8 p.m. in the Andrews Auditorium at the school.

Power Peak Is Reached

New England Electric System broke records Dec. 22 with an all-time power peak of 2578 megawatts (a megawatt equals one million watts). Compared with the 1969 peak of 2335 MW, power produced for NEES customers in 1970 was up over 8 percent.

The 2578 megawatts produced for NEES customers represent enough power to serve over a quarter of a million all-electric homes.

Christmas lighting on the shortest day of the year largely accounts for the power peak.

Mrs. Bernard J. Ristuccia, Jr.

Ristuccia - Rumbaugh

At a 7 p.m. candlelight Mass in St. Mary's Church, Kittanning, Pennsylvania, Miss Rebecca Ann Rumbaugh was married December 17 to Bernard J. Ristuccia, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Ristuccia of Andover. Reverend Frank Ferrara officiated at the double ring ceremony which was followed by a reception at the Kittanning Country Club. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Boyd Rumbaugh of Kittanning.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white velvet. Her mantilla veil and gown were trimmed with Alencon lace and she carried a white orchid centered in a cascade of holly.

Miss Karen Rumbaugh, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her red velvet gown was trimmed with Alencon lace. She wore a headpiece of holly and carried a white muff centered with a red rosebud and holly.

Miss Michelle Rumbaugh, sister of the bride, and Miss Karen Moore of Kittanning were bridesmaids and chose green velvet gowns, trimmed in Alencon lace, and carried identical muffs.

Michael Ristuccia, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Ushering were Joel, Matthew and Daniel Ristuccia, also brothers of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Rumbaugh, mother of the bride, wore a blue satin dress with matching jacket, while the mother of the bridegroom wore a golden yellow dress and coat ensemble.

The bride is a graduate of Indiana University of Pennsylvania and was employed as an executive secretary in the United States Information Agency in Washington, D.C.

Mr. Ristuccia graduated from Lake Forest College in Illinois, where he was a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity. He served as a Foreign Service Officer in the U. S. Information Agency and presently is associated with Wilmington Sales in Wilmington.

Following a wedding trip to South America, the couple will reside in North Andover.

The proposed new water rate schedule in the area of charging for fire protection service in terms of pipe size connected to the supply main is similar in some aspects to the electric rate method based upon peak demand.

With respect to Andover's obligation being limited to supplying water of but one quality, it being prohibitive costwise to lay more than one piping system, it is self evident that such opinions as "The water that the plant will provide is a benefit primarily for residential (customers)" is untenable. Such opinions are not sufficiently related to the factors involved.

Consequently, it would appear useful now to encourage industrial and other large users to understand that the costs of processing but one kind of water and delivering it in but one piping system is the most economical hence apportionment of the costs equally amongst all users, with but the exception of peak demand requirements, is essential.

To establish the base upon which to place the peak demand rate, determine the monthly peak demand of the average residential customer. Use that peak as the base from which additional sums must be charged against the time-demand of large residential, commercial and industrial users in accord with their metered rate and flow requirements.

It appears then that Town Meeting will not be correctly served if the Office of Selectmen allow the proposed new schedule to be adopted.

It is hoped that the Finance Committee will encourage the Office of Selectmen to ask for a new schedule based upon fairness for all customers and to have the schedule checked by others before it is adopted.

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN

The League of Women Voters is a non-partisan organization devoted to promoting political responsibility through informed and active participation in government.

The League can, and does, adopt positions and take action on governmental issues. It never supports or opposes any political party or candidate, nor does it now. It can however, encourage qualified citizens to run for elected office and it is to this point that we address ourselves in this letter.

Your attendance at town meetings indicates an interest in the town and an awareness that governments are only as good as the officials who administer them. Won't you think seriously about being part of that administration? We urge you to encourage your qualified friends and neighbors to run for an elected office. The following positions for which candidates will be elected on March 1st are:

1. Selectman -- 2 members to be elected
2. School Committee -- 2 members to be elected
3. Moderator
4. Housing Authority -- 1 member to be elected
5. Trustees of Cornell Fund (at Town Meeting from the floor)

Nomination papers to run for a public office need 94 signatures and are due at the Town Hall by January 25th at 5 p.m. Residents 19 years of age and older are eligible for public office. A more detailed description of each office and town meeting will be available at the Public Library and the town clerk's office. This information is being prepared by the League.

All citizens, whether they run for an office or not, can be effective in the political arena by giving financial assistance to candidates, by attending a League Candidates' Night in February, by voting on March 1st, and by regularly attending town meetings. (This year's meeting is on Monday, March 8th, 7:30 p.m. at the East Junior High on Bartlett St.) Also the last day for voter registration is Feb. 9 for anyone over 19.

But that's not the end! All town board and committee meetings (except for executive sessions) are open to the public. Attend and observe them! It's your privilege, and really your responsibility to insure that our town of Andover continues to have the kind of good government it needs.

Drug Talk

Scheduled

At West

On Wednesday, Jan. 27, at 7:30 p.m., the West school PTA will meet for a short business meeting, followed by an address by Joseph Harrington, Ph.D., director of counseling and psychological services at Merrimack College.

Dr. Harrington will touch upon the nature and scope of the problem, what is being done at the present, and what needs to be done in the future.

Before his talk, Dr. Harrington plans to have contacted with the chief of police and the superintendent of schools so that he can incorporate their ideas in his talk, so that it will be all the more pertinent to the parents of Andover.

Dr. Harrington is well known in this area since in addition to his duties at Merrimack he is also a consulting psychologist to the Mass. Department of Youth Services, consulting staff psychologist to the Lawrence General Hospital Rehabilitation Center, and Narcotic Act Rehabilitation Agency consultant for community services through the national office of Health, Education and Welfare. The meeting is open to the public.

ENVIRONMENT

organizations and interests were represented in each group.

By evening's end, the idea of a citizens' network was already partially justified, as a number of the groups had already set dates for future meetings to implement some of the following: programs or proposals:

Formation of a town beautification committee including sponsorship and interested members from all Andover garden clubs and interested non-members; (meeting Jan. 20) creation of a Citizen's Shawsheen River Watershed Group; a Chamber of Commerce - backed proposal for regular Shawsheen River water inspection by Sanitarian Joseph Barbagallo, a participant in the conference; compilation of a bibliography, with helpful notes, of books on the environment which should be in all school libraries, by a town librarian and her volunteer committee; another committee, under a North Andover school teacher, to set up ecology workshops for inclusion in an upcoming teacher's conference, to help elementary teachers to bring environmental education into the classroom; formation of an Andover chapter of Zero Population Growth (meeting: Tuesday, Jan. 19, 7:15 p.m. at Evans Science Building, PA), and others.

Other citizens interested in joining the efforts of any of the interest groups are urged by conference leaders to telephone the appropriate group leader, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cone, III, to be kept informed of meetings or developments in this field.

1) Town Beautification: a discussion of past programs and their problems, an organized labor force and master plan of town beautification that can be carried out and money and labor come available. Leader: Mrs. David Fox, president of the Andover Garden Club. Sec'y: Jean Farrington.

2) Water Pollution: A discussion of the Shawsheen inspection, cooperation among other communities, to form watershed citizens' group, and other topics of interest to members. Thomas Cone, Advisor to Andover Ecology Action and Nat Smith, president of AVIS. Sec'y: Carl Dines.

3) Land Management and Use: problems of management, volunteer labor to maintain reservations, conservancy zones on the Shawsheen and publicity programs; leaders: Mrs. Edmund Hammond, sec'y of the Conservation Commission and Harold Rafton, AVIS official. Sec'y: Nils Finne.

4) Air Pollution: A discussion of national problems and local rules and regulations; what the individual can do. Leaders: Mrs. Samuel Rosen, and Mrs. Jerome Andrews, League of Women Voters. Sec'y: Lincoln Smith.

5) Education and Information: What is best way to pass information to townspeople, education in elementary schools, Possibility of newsletter to conferees and interested citizens. Sec'y: James Bradford.

6) Cans and Bottles: A discussion of the pros and cons of the "Ban the Nonreturnable bottle" issue, and warrant article; Leader: Donald Thompson, AVIS. Sec'y: Dawn Marshall.

7) Consumer Protection and Regulation: How to keep the consumer aware of environmentally harmful products? What should be on the shelves. Seeking super-market cooperation. Leaders: Mrs. Thomas Cone and Mrs. Barbara Dunnington. Sec'y: Geoff Murdoch.

8) Population: Zero Population Growth and Family Planning.

WORK STOPPER. Installation of utility lines by the public works department was going along fine until they ran into this huge boulder. Considerable work was necessary to remove the two-ton rock in order to allow the new lines to pass.

Leaders: Robert Perreault and Mr. Johnson. Sec'y: Andy Williams.

AMBULANCE

The committee recommends the town not provide non-emergency service.

The feeling on this matter is that non-emergency service is abused and also insurance coverage provides for private service. A fee of $30 is to be charged non-residents.

The committee feels that if the Andover ambulance is called to another community on a mutual aid call, no charge should be made.

The group felt that a committee should be formed from adjoining Greater Lawrence communities to further study the ambulance service with a possibility of serving the area in an economical manner.

They felt that the service provided by the fire and police departments was excellent here in Andover.

Serving with Chairman Webster were Rev. Charles A. Fowle, William L. Lane, William D. Martin, Dr. William R. O'Reilly, Mrs. Louise B. Stupack and Mrs. Hazel G. Wilson.
